KASESE/KAMPALA. The skies continue to open up, wreaking havoc in Kasese District, with the latest victims of the floods being two people who were trying to fix a bridge that was washed away last week.

Yesterday's deaths brought the total toll to eight since rains began pounding the western district last week and causing river banks to burst, unleashing raging floods on the previously calm town. P. 4

Saleh: "I don't understand him (Gen. Tinyeфуza) when he says I'm informally involved in the affairs of the army. My office is Bombo Military Barracks and I didn't allocate it to myself. It's absurd if he wrote that letter. He should make a public apology."

Tinyefuza: "... I have written this letter in regard to allegations that have appeared in the press that IGP, Lt. Gen. Kale Kayihura, [Brig. Muhoozi Kainerugaba], Gen. Saleh, one Kellen ... hatched an evil plan of stage-managing the attack on Mbuya barracks [in March] so as to frame some senior members of this government."
